

Test Header

Congratulations! You're pregnant.

---

Kids are fun, but get ready for a lack of sleep.

This is an element for everyone.

Header test

This is the second text template, but the third template overall.

Here is a GUID example: Asset and Debt

Footer test

This template is used to demonstrate all the elements that can be added to a text template in the A2J DAT. This is a rich text element.

I inserted a variable telling everyone a name: Test First Name

Section after rich text element and before a page break

Page break

This is a custom header example. It should be emboldened and size 14 font. It should not display on the 1st page, but should display on all subsequent pages.

This is another rich text element, but now after a page break. I should be at the top of the 2nd page. There should be a customized header above me.

Pregnancy TF was true here.

---

Pregnancy TF was true here.

This is the pregnancy TF loop

- Year pregnant: 05/15/2024
- Year pregnant: 05/16/2024

A loop about assets

Name	Value
------	-------

Pregnancy loop with text

This is a paragraph that will repeat however many times the end user needs. I said I needed it to repeat 2

This is a custom header example. It should be emboldened and size 14 font.
It should not display on the 1st page, but should display on all subsequent pages.
